

Asian American Christian Counseling Service, Inc.
Ryo and Jean Komae Scholarship
For 2012-2013 School Year

Deadline: February 15, 2012

“The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.”
—Psalm 34:18

Asian American Christian Counseling Service, Inc. (AACCS): AACCS is a non-denominational, non-profit organization dedicated to providing emotional healing to individuals and families, to restore broken relationships, to offer hope and guidance for positive personal change and to enhance interpersonal relationships through professional counseling and education. It was founded to provide professional counseling services that are sensitive both to spiritual issues and to the nuances of Asian American culture.

Its mission is accomplished in four ways through offering:

- * Affordable and accessible counseling and psychotherapy
- * Graduate and post-graduate training of counselors and therapists who desire to serve the Asian American Christian community
- * Consultation and support to pastors, churches, community groups and missionaries and their families
- * Preventive and educational services, parent education and conferences

The Scholarship: The AACCS “Ryo and Jean Komae” Scholarship will be awarded annually to help the next generation of Christian counselors with a heart to serve the Asian American community and to give these counselors encouragement in their graduate studies as they prepare to help the “brokenhearted.”

Two scholarships of $2,000 will be awarded each year in the spring to be used for the 2012-2013 school year. Each scholarship is a one-time award.

Criteria for applicants:

1. Must be a graduate student currently enrolled in an accredited Marriage and Family Therapy(MFT) Program, Masters in Social Work (MSW) Program or a Clinical Psychology (Psy.D/Ph.D.) Program at a local Los Angeles or Orange County area university or college.
2. Must have an overall undergraduate and graduate school GPA of 3.0 or higher.
3. Must be of Asian American descent or have an interest in Asian culture, languages and the Asian American community.
4. Must have a heart and calling to bring his/her skills to the Asian American Christian community and the Asian American community as a whole following completion of his/her graduate program.
5. Must be a professing Christian as found in Romans 10:9.
6. Must be a regular attender at a local church.
7. Must be willing to serve as a volunteer for AACCS if awarded the scholarship (15 or more hours during the 2012-2013 school year).
8. May not be a current or former employee or independent contractor of AACCS and may not be an immediate family member (spouse, child, sibling or in-law) of a current or former employee of AACCS or an independent contractor of AACCS.
